

Nebraska and Texas Privacy Addendum

Effective Date: August 1, 2025

The states of Nebraska and Texas have enacted privacy laws—the Nebraska Data Privacy Act and the Texas Data Privacy Act—designed to protect consumers' personal information. These laws grant residents specific rights regarding their personal data.

This Addendum applies to the personal information of individuals and households located in Nebraska or Texas. If the Company processes your personal information as a service provider or contractor, please contact the organization that originally collected your data to exercise your rights.

1. Your Rights and Choices

- a) Right to Know: You may have the right to request what personal information we have collected, used, disclosed, and sold about you, subject to certain exceptions. For example, if providing you this right reveals any of our proprietary information, we may deny this request.
- b) Right to Correct: You may have the right to request that we correct inaccurate personal information that we maintain about you. We will honor such request but might not be able to fulfill your request if it is impossible to do so or would involve disproportionate effort, or if we have a good faith, reasonable, and documented belief that a request to correct is fraudulent or abusive.
- c) Right to Delete: You may have the right to request deletion of your personal information. We will honor such request but might not be able to fulfill your request if we (or our service providers) are required to obtain your personal information. Examples of such exceptions are:
 - Detecting and addressing data security incidents;
 - Repairing or upkeeping our IT systems;
 - Protecting against fraud or other illegal activity;
 - Complying with applicable law or legal obligation, or to exercise rights under the law (e.g., the right to free speech); or
 - Using your personal information internally to improve our Services.
- d) Right to Data Portability: You may have the right to obtain a copy of the personal information you provided to us, if the information is available in a digital format and processed by completely automated means.
- e) Right to Opt Out: You have the right to opt out of the sale of your personal information, the processing of your personal information for purposes of targeted advertising, or profiling in furtherance of a decision that produces a legal or similarly significant effect.
- f) Right to Appeal- for Nebraska Residents: You may have the right to appeal our refusal to take action on your request to exercise your other rights. To request an appeal to our refusal, please email privacy@aglt.com, using the subject line “Right to Appeal- Nebraska” and include an explanation on why Assured Guaranty should reconsider its decision. We will review the appeal and notify you of our response, within forty-five (45) calendar days. If we still refuse to act on your request, you have the right to file a complaint with the Nebraska Attorney General. You can file a complaint by clicking here.

- g) Right to Appeal- for Texas Residents: You may have the right to appeal our refusal to take action on your request to exercise your other rights. To request an appeal to our refusal, please email privacy@aglt.com, using the subject line “Right to Appeal- Texas” and include an explanation on why Assured Guaranty should reconsider its decision. We will review your appeal and notify you of our response within sixty (60) calendar days. If we still refuse to act on your request, you have the right to file a complaint with the Texas Attorney General. You can file a complaint by clicking here.

To exercise the rights described above, please submit a verifiable consumer request to us by the following methods:

- Call us at 800-608-6030
- Email us at privacy@aglt.com with the subject line “Nebraska Consumer Request” or “Texas Consumer Request”
- Mail to Assured Guaranty Attn: Chief Compliance Officer, 1633 Broadway New York, NY 10019

The verifiable consumer request must: (i) provide sufficient information for us to reasonably verify you are the person about whom we collected personal information or an authorized representative; and (ii) describe your request with sufficient detail for us to properly understand, evaluate, and respond to it. We cannot respond to your request or provide you with personal information if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm the personal information related to you. Making a verifiable consumer request does not require you to create an account with us. If you use an authorized agent to make a request on your behalf, we may require proof from you that they have been authorized directly by you to act on your behalf. We will only use personal information provided in the request to verify the agent’s identity or authority to make it for security and fraud prevention purposes.

We will endeavor to respond to a verifiable consumer request within forty-five (45) calendar days of its receipt. If we require more time, we will notify you of the extension and provide an explanation of the reason for the extension in writing, and we will provide you with a response no later than ninety (90) calendar days of receipt of the request. If you have an account with us, we will deliver our written response to that account. If you do not have an account with us, we will deliver our written response by mail or electronically, at your option.

The response we provide will also explain the reasons we cannot comply with a request, if applicable. We may charge a reasonable fee to process or respond to your verifiable consumer requests if they are excessive, repetitive, or manifestly unfounded. If we determine that the request warrants a fee, we will inform you of the reasons for this decision. We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your consumer privacy rights under the Nebraska or Texas data privacy laws, as applicable, including by denying a good or service, charging a different price or rate for a good or service, or providing you with a different level or quality of a good or service.
