

Predictions are everywhere in the investment world. Predictability isn't.

There's a reason that over the past three decades municipal bond issuers and investors have relied on Assured Guaranty bond insurance: Predictability.

- Predictable support: Helping issuers launch cost-effective bond offerings.
- Predictable payment: Principal and interest paid in full and on time.
- Predictable market liquidity: With $2 billion of average weekly trading volume in our insured bonds.
- Predictable financial strength: $11 billion* in claims-paying resources and more than $375 million of annual investment income across our group.
